Farewell Events Given for Summer Visitors

Jointly honoring her daughter, Miss Dorothy Carson, who plans to leave soon for Denver, Colo., and Miss Eva McCormick, who will leave tomorrow for her home in Hillsboro, Ore., Mrs. Margaret Carson entertained Saturday evening with an interesting "Amos 'n Andy" bridge party at her home on Carson street.

Favors, score cards and prizes cleverly accented the Amos 'n Andy idea. Miss Maude Seaman of Hollywood was awarded honors for high score among the ladies, and Miss Margaret Gensler consolation. Mr. William Saunders won high score for men and Mr. Sidney E. Smith consolation.

Present were Misses Eva McCormick, Dorothy Carson, Maude Seaman, Daisy Kohler, Margaret Gensler, William Saunders, Malcolm Johnston, R. Bingham, Harold Hooker, George Carpenter, Kramer Carson, Mr. and Mrs. Sidney E.

Smith, and the hostess, Mrs. Margaret Carson.

Tris Feted
On Wednesday evening, Miss Carson and Miss McCormick shared honors with Miss Maude Mitchell of Florence, Colo., who is the houseguest of Mrs. H. E. Blunt of Culver City, when Mrs. Sidney E. Smith entertained with an evening of bridge.

Red and black furnished the color motif for the party and flowers and taffies brought out the two colors effectively.

Invited were Mr. and Mrs. J. Hill of Long Beach, Mr. and Mrs. Brooks Snelgrove of Palos Verdes, Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Blunt of Culver City, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Fisher, Mr. William Saunders, Mr. Kramer Carson, Mr. Malcolm Johnston, three honored guests, Misses Eva McCormick, Dorothy Carson and Maude Mitchell.

Mrs. J. C. Smith Hostess At Party for Daughter

Mrs. J. C. Smith was hostess at a lovely affair given at the Hotel Lafayette in Long Beach last Thursday when she entertained with a bridge luncheon honoring her daughter and houseguest, Mrs. Lester Smith of Independence, Kan.

California colors formed the motif for the decorations, with orange predominating at the luncheon tables.

Mrs. R. C. Hatt of Los Angeles was awarded honors for high score at bridge, Mrs. R. A. Huber second, and Mrs. Tom McGuire consolation. Mrs. Lester Smith was the recipient of the guest award.

Places were marked for Mrs. Jack Morgan, Mrs. R. C. Hatt, Mrs. Paul Reed and Miss Margaret O'Connor, all of Los Angeles; Mrs. George Sheehan of Beverly Hills; Mrs. O. B. Kee of Long Beach; Mrs. Lee Holtz of Huntington Park; Mrs. Tom McGuire, Mrs. C. T. Rippey and Mrs. R. A. Huber of Torrance; the honoree, Mrs. Lester Smith, and the hostess, Mrs. J. C. Smith.

Mr. and Mrs. Lester Smith shared honors Saturday evening when Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Hatt entertained at the Hatt home in Long Beach.

PRETTY LUNCHEON GIVEN AT LONG BEACH
Pink and white formed a pretty color scheme when Miss Frances Hepburn entertained the bridge club at her home in Long Beach last Thursday.

Tall pink tapers centered the luncheon tables, and the dainty nut cups were rosebud shaped. Baskets of rose, asters completed the decorative theme.

Honors for high score at bridge were awarded to Mrs. Lucius Arnold, second to Mrs. Robert Lewellen and consolation to Mrs. David Preston. Mrs. Adam Murray of Long Beach was awarded the guest prize, and Mrs. Dallas Stewart won the cut prize.

Present were Mrs. Adam Murray, Mrs. George Webb and Mrs. Earl R. Hepburn, all of Long Beach; Mrs. Robert Lewellen, Mrs. Lucius Arnold, Mrs. David Preston, Mrs. Jack Fuller, Mrs. James O'Toole, and Mrs. Dallas Stewart all of Torrance, and the hostess, Miss Frances Hepburn.

COUPLE UNITED AT LOVELY CEREMONY
In a lovely ceremony performed at the Wee Kirk O' The Heather in Glendale, Miss Muriel Doherty, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Doherty of Los Angeles, became the bride of William McGinnis of Torrance.

The nuptial vows were spoken at 8 o'clock Friday evening in the presence of 100 guests.

The bride was becomingly gowned in white satin made along princess lines with long train. She wore a long tulle veil, cap design, and held in place by a bandeau of orange blossoms. She carried a white Episcopal prayer book.

Mrs. Mae Cooper Netten, matron of honor, wore peach satin and carried an arm bouquet of Talliman rosebuds. The bridesmaids, Evelyn Beall and Claire Eberhard, wore Nile green chiffon and orchid chiffon, respectively, and carried arm bouquets of Pernet roses and yellow sweet peas. Mr. Francis Ryan assisted the groom as best man and Mr. Guy Harris and Dr. W. E. Peppin were ushers.

Prior to the ceremony, which was performed by Rev. Phillip K. Kemp of St. Mark's Episcopal church of Glendale, Ben Heiberger sang "Ah Sweet Mystery of Life," and "I Love You Truly."

A wedding dinner was served to the bridal party at the home of the bride's parents at 3473 S. Flower street, Los Angeles, after which Mr. and Mrs. McGinnis left for a honeymoon trip to Lake Tahoe.

The bride is a graduate of Gardena High school, and the groom is a graduate of Washington State college and a member of Sigma Phi Epsilon fraternity. Mr. McGinnis is the son of Mr. and Mrs. William McGinnis of Langley, Washington.

hall. The Star emblem, in colors, was traced with icing on the top of the cake. Mrs. Mae Sidebotham, worthy matron, cut the cake and served each guest with a portion.

Mrs. Jessie K. Beaton, deputy Grand Matron of the 50th district of California, and her husband, Roy Beaton, were guests of honor at the dinner.

Six of the past Worthy Matrons of the Torrance chapter were present, the first two being the only absent ones. Past Worthy Matrons present were Mrs. John Guyan, Mrs. George Watson, Mrs. E. N. Tomkins, Mrs. A. Shrine, Mrs. J. H. Fess, Mrs. Joe Stone, and the present Matron, Mrs. Mae Sidebotham.

Much of the credit for the success of the dinner was awarded to Mrs. E. N. Tomkins, who with her committee served the delicious dinner, and to Mrs. A. W. Johnson, who was chairman of the dining room committee.
